7. For our government, marriage has always been considered a contractual matter, not a religious one. You are considered legally married as long as you have a ceremony performed by a person legally authorized to do so; it does not matter if the officiant is "religiously" authorized. An atheist judge can legally marry you. Additionally, you are not considered legally married if you only have a ceremony performed by a clergyman, and have no legally issued marriage license. Answer the following questions:
- What role should religion play in our acceptance and acknowledgement of a legal marriage contract?
 - How would you argue that the church has the legal right to ignore or resist a marriage contract legally entered into by adults?
8. One of the Republican candidates running for the Presidency in 2016, has argued that no Muslims should be allowed to enter the United States.

His belief comes from the fact that there are Muslim extremists who have declared jihad on the West and the fact that the extremists pose a security risk to the nation. This view stands in opposition to American values that welcomes immigrants into the United States particularly when they are fleeing persecution from their home country.

Based on these thoughts, answer the following questions.

- Should Muslims from outside the United States be welcomed into the United States? Explain your answer.
- Is the United State of America a Christian nation? If so, why should persons from other faiths be allowed to come to this country?

Mandatory Question (You must respond to this question)

Bishop Charles Harrison Mason, founder of the Church of God In Christ, was ejected from the Baptist Church for teaching holiness doctrine. Subsequently, God used him to start the largest Pentecostal organization in the world. Answer the following questions.
